Raul Castillo Martial Arts

Raul Castillo Martial Arts (RCMA) is dedicated to the self improvement and healthy lifestyle of all its students through the many martial arts disciplines they offer. Specializing in adult and youth Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, Kami-Do-Ryu Karate, Mixed Martial Arts (MMA), Boxing/Muay Thai, Cardio Kickboxing, and Fitness Classes, the school also hosts birthday parties and summer camps.

RCMA, established in 2006, is focused on promoting an atmosphere of discipline, respect, humility, and fun. Students are taught there is always room for improvement and to win with honor and lose with grace.

Participants at Raul Castillo Martial Arts have shared rave reviews about Raul Castillo and the instructors, saying they not only care about their students' personal martial arts journey but as individuals too. Instructors have a gift for breaking down concepts into basic steps at every level.

Raul Castillo has been practicing martial arts since the age of 4, achieving the rank of black belt in Karate at the age of 11, under George Marengo from Half Moon Bay in the style of Kami-Do-Ryu. He also earned his black belt in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu at age 22 (2016) under Master Claudio Franca from Santa Cruz.

Raul received the 'Role Model of the Year' award in 2017 from the Half Moon Bay Coastside Chamber of Commerce. As a middleweight fighter in MMA, according to MMA Weekly, he sports a 7-1-0 record and has never been KO or submitted. Currently, he is head coach for Bellator fighter Adam "The Bomb" Piccolotti (11-3-0) and Matt "The Tornado" Aragoni and former NCHL player and current undefeated amateur fighter Gavin Hallinan.

P2-Goldworks beat P4-Dr. Moody 7-5

Goldworks built an early lead and held on to win the battle of the top 2 PeeWee teams on the strength of 3 lamp-lighters from Emil Al-Shaikh and Max Dill. Just :21 into the game, Al-Shaikh mucked the puck out from the boards and hit a streaking Dill, who sent a forehand over the goalie's stick. Dill returned the favor 3 minutes later, and Al-Shaikh buried a low wrister into the corner of the net. Guest forward Jeremy Raffai built Goldworks' lead to 3-0 when he set up in the slot and tipped in a Dill clapper.

Dr. Moody got one back when Madelynn Haro extracted the puck from an impacted area along the boards, then won the scrum and drilled a pass to Liam Kehoe, whose low forehand filled the 4x6' cavity (do you get the dental references?) with 3:16 left in the 1st.

Goldworks dominated the 2nd period as Al-Shaikh notched his 2nd on a low forehand, and then Dill used the pep in his step to skate in from the faceoff circle and deposit a twisting wrister for his 2nd lamp lighter. Al-Shaikh then got his hat trick when he set up in the right faceoff circle and sent a low forehand just inside the far post. Blueliners Lisbeth Shufton and Kai Higaki kept Dr. Moody off the board in the frame, and the teams skated to the break at 6-1.

Dr. Moody rallied in the 3rd, as Cody Moulton put the biscuit in the basket 4 times. He struck first on a backhand :21 ticks in off a Sophie Hunter pass, then on a spin-o-rama solo effort just :31 later.

Guest skater Michael Brozovich's slapshot into traffic made its way to Moulton, who was as cool as the other side of the pillow as he dug it out and rattled home the rebound right inside the post. Midway through the frame he scored his game-high 4th goal on a low slapper just over the goalie's stacked pads to cut it to 6-5.

Dill's hat trick on a wicked wrister through the 7-hole added an important insurance goal, though the team couldn't capitalize when Haro was sent to the Sin Bin for 2:00 to think about what she had done (a tripping call). With Matthew Wylie stoning Dr. Moody forward Julie Nair down the stretch, Goldworks skated to its 5th win.

Nick DeBeer holds the twig that brought him good luck and gives a big Thumbs Up after scoring on all 6 shots in the Six Shooter contest.

Nick DeBeer wins Six Shooter, sponsored by HMB BrewCo

Nick DeBeer was the 1st Six Shooter contestants to successfully deposit 4 pucks into the goal from midrink, and in fact he scored all 6. He credited his skill to his Boston upbringing and—surprisingly—not to his wife Michelle's support nor the coaching of his Bantam son Cody. None of our other 9 contestants scored more than 3 times. Better luck next time to Amal Brozovich, Amy Dubois, Steve Shufton, Claudinea Kehoe, Greg Barton, Greg Brozovich, Nicole Higaki, Steve Adragna, and Franz Dill. Successful contestants win several prizes and are invited back to compete for the $50 and $25 HMB BrewCo gift certificates during the Six Shooter Shootout on Championship Sunday, July 28.

Hockey That's Fresh, Not Frozen

Life Lesson and Hockey Quote of the Week:
"Don't go through life without goals." ~Hockey Saying

• Where's the Puck AND Goal or No Goal? • You Make the Call •

Week 6 featured several close games under great hockey weather at the Half Moon Bay Rink.

S1-Raul Castillo Martial Arts topped S2-Real Estate Funding Service 10-6

Wyatt Ament had a hand in 6 of Raul Castillo Martial Arts' 10 goals, and Michael Brozovich added a hat trick in the 10-6 win over Real Estate Funding Service. 9 players recorded points in the high-scoring affair as both teams eschewed the "actually having a goalie" strategy.

Ament lit the lamp first for Raul Castillo on a 5-hole forehand off a slick feed from Brozovich, but Nathan DuBois got the equalizer on a 2nd chance rebound off the post. Madelynn Haro then got her daily fill of iron, using the post to her advantage, as she tucked home a rebound to give the Martial Artists a lead they would never relinquish.

Brozovich extended the lead to 2 when he took a nicely saucered pass from Ament and skated behind the defense, then fired a forehand into the 4x6' opening. Rad Jennings scored on an odd-man-rush with Ament with :11 ticks left to make it 4-1 at the first break.

Surge scoring continued in the middle frame, as Jennings sent a tape-to-tape pass to Brozovich, who broke away and sent a rolling puck into the corner of the net. Macklin Loubal then assisted on Brozovich's 3rd of the day, a low forehand to make it 6-1.

Jackson Qaqundah grabbed a loose puck and avoided the defense, rebounding his own shot to make it to 6-2. DuBois cut Real Estate Funding Service's deficit to 3 when he shot one in from the slot, but Haro scored her 2nd when she let loose with a low laser and Loubal took a dish from Ament and banked in a backhand to restore the 5-goal lead at the 2nd intermission.

Real Estate Funding won the 3rd period, but it was too little, too late. Zaki Shemisa was denied on an offensive-zone rush but Jeremy Raffai set up in the slot and fired in a fast forehand, and Nadia Yambing scored on a wrister to cut it to 8-5. Ament scored his 2nd goal on a forehand to the center of the net with 1:49 remaining. Raffai notched his 2nd just :21 later when he powered one home, but Ament sealed the win when he went 1-on-1 with the defense and slid home a backhand to even Raul Castillo Martial Arts' record at 3-3.

Real Estate Funding Service's stacked offense provided great coverage of one corner of the rink, but couldn't defend the entire 185x85' blue ice in the 10-6 loss to Raul Castillo Martial Arts.

P3-Dr. Sheppard took 10-7 win over P1-Premier Termite

Dr. Sheppard improved to 3-2-1 on the season as Deaglan Eblovi turned on the red light 4 times, and Junuh Eblovi and Aaron McCoy each added 3 goals in the 10-7 win over Premier Termite.

McCoy scored the game's first goal just :05 in the contest, skating in from the opening faceoff and firing in a forehand that ricocheted in off the goalie's chest. Dr. Sheppard would never trail, as Deaglan Eblovi then extended the lead to 2-0 when he stole the puck in the left faceoff circle and fired one home.

Cody Moulton used his fleet feet to put on an early display of "dangle, snipe and celly" on the 1st of his 3 goals, breaking away and deking the defense before firing in a low forehand stick side.

The Eblovi brothers would get that one back, and more, as Deaglan lugged the mail uprink on a breakaway for 1 score, then Junuh added 2 more, first on a high forehand to the stick side, and then another top-shelf wrister to the glove side for a 5-1 Dr. Sheppard lead as the teams skated to the benches.

Trevor Barton moved from the goal crease to the blueline in front of Premier Termite goalie Emma Alexander, who was tested early and often in the second stanza, making 9 saves in the 12-minute period. Moulton showed it and toed it in scoring his 2nd, breaking away from the defense and going stick side on a low forehand. Junuh Eblovi skated ahead of the pack to notch his hat trick, then set up McCoy for his 2nd on a shot from the slot. Deaglan Eblovi then lit the lamp for the 3rd time on a forehand to extend the lead to 6, before guest Max Dill sent a wrist shot past the goalie's trapper to make it 8-3 at the 2nd break.

Early in the 3rd Dill scored again on a 7-hole forehand, and Premier Termite forward Trevor Barton (gold #9) went in on an odd-man rush with Cody Moulton (gold #15), but Dr. Sheppard goalie Cody DeBeer appeared ready for the shot. Where's the puck, and did it cross the line?

then potted his 3rd and the team's 3rd straight by converting a pass from Michael Slye. Dr. Sheppard guest forward Sophie Hunter found an open McCoy, and caps rained down as he rippled the mesh for his hat trick while stationed in front of the net, restoring the 4-goal lead.

Slye earned the week's "Mr. Bo-Dangles" mantle for dangling the defense and going top cheese after a devastating deke to make it 9-6. Junuh Eblovi then connected with Madelynn Haro with a cross-crease pass to hit double-digits for the team, before Moulton stole the puck, skated to the middle of the zone, and scored his and the game's final goal with 1:21 left.

Scoring chances by Aiden Moore and Levi Terwey were turned aside by Dr. Sheppard netminder Cody DeBeer, who stopped 13 shots for the victors.

"Goal or No Goal?" answer: No goal. "Where's the Puck?" answer: The goalie butterflied (butterflied?) and caught the black and white puck on the crest of his sweater (here in hockey we don't call it a "jersey").

Raul Castillo Martial Arts (in teal) and Real Estate Funding Service skaters (in white) seem to be inspecting the dasherboard ad panels for possible future advertisements. (The NCHL does have space available for rent, btw.) Either that, or they mucked up the puck on the boards for an inordinate amount of time before working it free and resuming play in the Squirt division contest.

Where's the Puck AND Goal or No Goal?

B3-Jungletraders claimed 9-6 win over B1-KHMB-Your Hometown Radio Station

Jungletraders won the first of its 2 Bantam division games riding the back of hat tricks from Karsten Lansing and Billy Ou and the guest goaltending of Junuh Eblovi, who stopped 16 shots.

Ou's first score was a thing of beauty, a high forehand snipe past the goalie's glove 2:00 into the contest. Ou then spotted an open Lansing, who lit the lamp on a changeup that floated over the goal line. Max Hunter got one back for KHMB-Your Hometown Radio Station with :45 ticks left in the 1st period by forcing a turnover and firing in a high forehand past the goalie's trapper to trail by 1.

2-handed slash or innocuous love tap? KHMB's Max Hunter's gentle (?) tap of Alan Ou (orange #29) went uncalled, but Ou may not have minded too much as he scored twice in Jungletraders' 9-6 win.

B3-Jungletraders defeated B2-HMB Lions Club 10-6

B3-Jungletraders raced to a big early lead and nabbed an important 2 points in the standings to move atop the Bantam division after its 10-6 win over HMB Lions Club. Alan Ou and Karsten Lansing each had 2 lamp-lighters.

It took just :20 for Ou to record his first point as he went 5-hole with a forehand, and brother Billy Ou followed less than 2:00 later when he went coast-to-coast and sent in a long wrist shot. Alan Ou then forced a turnover in the offensive zone and fired in a forehand to the far side of the net. Brennan Higaki continued the Jungletraders assault as he won a battle along the boards, skated in and scored on a low wrister under the goalie's glove. The team in resplendent orange upped the lead to 5-0 when Eli Dill set up in the slot and 1-timed a centering feed from Alan Ou.

HMB Lions Club got one back when Treythan Krieger spotted Alex Stevens in a high-danger scoring area, and he converted by sliding one under the goalie's pillows to make it 5-1 at the 1st break.

The team continued to rally after intermission, with Pablo Jaramillo's clapper finding the twine after a pass from Stevens, though Alan Ou matched that as he finished off a 2-on-1 rush with brother Billy Ou (it's pronounced "Oh" as in "Oh no, there's a pair of skaters bearing down on me) to make it 6-2.

Jason Ricos poked in a puck that the goalie didn't cover in the crease, and he then converted a pass from Jaramillo and fired off a slapper that went bar-down to cut it to 6-4.

Before the middle frame was over, Lansing won a faceoff, wheeled and dealed, and scored from the slot for the 7-4 Jungletraders lead. Nicholas Davis and Mixie Nair had scoring chances turned KHMB tied it early in the 2nd period when Johnny Brozovich sent a 50' slapshot by the screened goalie, and took the lead when Patrick Hurley pounced on the plastic and pushed home the puck to take a 3-2 lead into the break. Cody DeBeer and Patrick Ginna cleared the puck effectively for Team Teal and totally shut down Jungletraders forward Brennan Higaki in the middle frame, while goalie Tommy Kahle stared down an amazing 15 shots in the 2nd period alone, on the way to a day-high 30 saves.

The 3rd period saw double the amount of scoring, a full 10 goals. Just :10 into the 3rd, KHMB took its largest lead when Hunter snuck by the goalie and sent one rimming around the net. But Jungletraders responded with 4 straight goals, first on Lansing's 2nd on a high forehand over the goalie's glove and then on Ou's 5-hole goal to tie the score at 4-4. Alan Ou turned on the red light when he rebounded a shot through traffic, and Lansing got his hat trick on a high forehand over the netminder's blocker to go up 6-4.

KHMB-FM 100.9/AM-1710 got one back when guest forward Max Dill—who must have just been warming up when he played 2 games earlier in the day—stole the puck in the corner and skated behind the defense before firing in a forehand through the 7-hole.

Jungletraders restored the 2-goal lead when Billy Ou spotted guest center Eli Dill open in front and sauced a perfect pass, and the elder Dill beat the goalie low to the stick side. Billy Ou then netted his 3rd on a low wrister, and brother Alan Ou got behind the D to score through the 7-hole on the glove side.

With :14.3 remaining Brozovich centered the puck to Hunter, who added to his hat collection when his 3rd was able to find the twine on the stick side, but it was too little, too late, as Jungletraders secured the 2 points for the win.

Hooking, slash or a pirouette gone wrong? Billy Ou's (orange #25) graceful (?) move couldn't deny KHMB's Karsten Lansing (gold #25), who recorded a hat trick.

aside by Tommy Kahle, who made 18 saves for the victors.

In the 3rd period, Eli Dill sent an outlet pass to Billy Ou, who skated to the left faceoff circle and deposited a backhand just under the goalie's blocker. Jaramillo wheeled and dealed, rushing up the rink before going backhand to forehand for the team's 5th goal. Stevens then steered a faceoff to Ricos, who laid the lumber on the puck and sent it top shelf, where grandma keeps the good stuff.

Solid defense from Tristyn Krieger aided a 17-save performance from Junuh Eblovi, but Lansing closed out the scoring for Jungletraders as he forced a turnover in the defensive zone and went end-to-end before firing in a glove-side forehand, then taking the faceoff and scoring a backhand that clinched Jungletraders' 5th win of the season.
